KRAZY KAT "THE PIE CURS"

Produced by Charles B. Mintz Distributed by Paramount

A pie-eating contest is in progress. The big Hippo challenges all comers. Krazy Kat enters the contest and the battle is on. It is being held in a ring with seconds, referee and a time-keeper.

After the Hippo gets into the lead, Krazy Kat transforms himself into a vacuum cleaner and proceeds to demolish the pies, but he can't get into the lead. Finally, he turns his tail into a spring and his second covers it making it resemble a batch of pies. As the Hippo tries to eat them, the spring catches in his mouth and he can't swallow it. When he does, it causes him to bounce around the ring like a rubber ball and he finally falls to the floor exhausted. Krazy Kat is declared the winner and is given the prize.

He proudly goes to his sweetheart and she repulses him saying he is too fat. Thereupon, he throws himself in front of a steam roller and is flattened out and returns to her and again seek her hand, only to find to his dismay that the fickle woman has since fallen in love with an elephant and loves fat men after all.
